Dear Mr. Novak:

I would like to commend you for your charitable initiative with the World Food Programme (WFP) to fight global hunger through "World Hunger Relief Week." Such efforts increase awareness of the problem of hunger around the globe, help engage additional volunteers, and raise critical funds to help feed hundreds of thousands of children. It is through these cooperative efforts that individuals, communities and businesses come together to produce effective long-term solutions to this problem.

I want to encourage you in this effort and wish you much success in this charitable endeavor.

Sincerely Regards,

Roy Blunt
Republican Whip
